

Josh Metz
Assistant Executive Officer
Fort Ord Reuse Authority

Josh currently serves as the Fort Ord Reuse Authority (FORA) Assistant Executive Officer, supporting completion of key Fort Ord base reuse programs including economic development, planning, habitat conservation, building removal bond financing and capital improvements.

In this role, Josh is a key member of the FORA leadership team providing internal staff management and mentorship, while providing staff support to 23-member Board of Directors comprised of elected leaders from eight cities, County, State & Federal jurisdictions along with the California State University, University of California, US Army, and other regional agencies.

Josh holds a Master of Landscape Architecture degree from UC Berkeley, and lives with his wife and daughter in Santa Cruz.