

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

CALIFORNIA ASSOCIATION FOR LOCAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

POSITION: Project Coordinator

STATUS: Part-Time/Full-Time Position based on Qualifications

LOCATION: Sacramento, CA

REPORTS TO: Program Director

What it's Like to Work at CALED and the Opportunity:

The California Association for Local Economic Development (CALED) team is a small group of people who get a tremendous amount of work done! We have a fast-paced office where most team members work on a variety of projects and are required to balance multiple deadlines and prioritize projects and tasks. CALED is a supportive and friendly environment for team members. We like to have fun while also accomplishing a lot. In return, we expect a high level of professionalism, quality work products, and trust in the work of the team and your co-workers.

Over the past several years, our organizations are growing, and we are achieving major milestones in supporting economic development professionals and promoting the value of economic development. We want to add a Project Coordinator to our team who can help us share those milestones, engage with the purpose of gathering input from members and partners to inform future programs, and work with the Program Director to manage and implement special programs and projects.

The ideal candidate will have a passion for our mission and understand and value being part of a high-functioning team. The Project Coordinator will need to focus on quality over efficiency and attention to detail, adhere to high standards for the quality of their work, have excellent analytical skills, and have exceptional written and verbal communication skills. Please see the full job description for more information.

About CALED:

The California Association for Local Economic Development (CALED) is the premier statewide professional economic development organization dedicated to advancing its members' ability to achieve excellence in delivering economic development services to their communities and business clients. CALED's membership consists of public and private organizations and individuals involved in economic development: the business of growing local economies by helping businesses thrive. We do this through managing three organizations: CALED, the California Academy for Economic Development (the Academy), and the California Enterprise Development Authority (CEDA). We collectively refer to these as CALED and our affiliates.
