

Robert Moran
Deputy Director
Riverside County Office of Economic Development

Rob Moran is the Deputy Director for the Riverside County Business & Community Services department. He is responsible for implementing business attraction, retention, and various entrepreneurship programs throughout Riverside County. He coordinates efforts with several of the county's economic development corporations, cities, chambers of commerce, and Small Business Development Centers. He is a graduate of California Baptist University with a Master of Public Administration and Cal Poly Pomona University with a degree in Business Administration.

Affiliations:

- Board of Directors, California Association for Local Economic Development
- Board of Directors, ExCITE Incubator
- Board of Directors, Economic Development Coalition of Southwest California
- City of Riverside, Transportation Board
- 2016-17 Inland Empire Economic Partnership Regional Leadership Academy
- Coachella Valley Small Business Development Center